Remaklus & Beckman

Hope to be favored by your presence at their

SpringOpening

on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday

March 22d to 25th

Advance Models in Tailored Suits, Gowns. Dresses, Coats, Blouses, Skirts and Undergarments.

Beautifully modeled Corsets, Dress Goods, Silks, Laces, Embroideries, White Goods and fancy Wash Goods, Rugs, Carpets, Curtains, Draperies and Home Furnishings.

Remaklus & Beckman

West Fayette Street, CELINA, OHIO

SHOES

The J. A. Roemer Co.

cordially invite you to inspect the new Spring Footwear for Men, Women and Children. An authoritative display of accepted Spring Fashions. The styles will interest you.

COUNTY C. E. NOTES

The Celina Presbyterian Society held a very good meeting last Sunday evening with the Secretary, Miss Le-ona Dickman as leader. Only 55 per cent of the enrollment were present and 24 per cent. took part. Miss Carolyn Rutherford sang very beautifully, Rev. N. A. McCaulay's, "How Could It Be," and a male quartette sang, 'The Church in the Wildwood.'

The dime-bank was passed for the second time at the Celina Society last Sunday veening. A goodly offering is sent every year from this society to the State Union on the Endeavorers for his helpers, the children of his parents. He This society will observe Honorary has ambitions and he is saving members' meeting next Sunday evening with Miss Leona Winters leading. amass enough to carry him through

The Celina Juniors have on a contest for membersship. The attendance Sunday was good. They observed a missioinary topic with Ruth Snavely leading. A missionary off-ering was raised. Miss Carolyn Rutherford played a beautiful piano solo at this meeting.

A very good meeting was the report of the U. B. Society of Montezuma, last Sunday evening, with El-sie Gray as leader.

Choice of Fabrics for Your Spring Outfit.

Many Natty Styles for Tailored Back as Tight-Fitting Sleeve cans. Disappears.

It is with a joy, kindred to that of he butterfly when it emerges from ts cocoon, that we cast away dust and span frocks and tailored suits of lightweight materials, with their crisp lingeric collars and cuffs.

Fashion is as generous in providing womankind with attractive spring attire as Mother Nature is in clothing her children. You have but to gaze in the shore of them with a tractive spring attractive spring attractive spring attractive spring attractive spring attractive spring her children. You have but to gaze in the shore of them with spick to crop values. Tariff adds nothing things the farmer buys.

Wool and mutton will again fatten the farm and pocket book.

TO BREEDERS AND LOVERS OF GOOD HORSES

ing her children. You have but to gaze in the shop windows to quell any doubt as to the truth of this state-

There is a most interesting collectn of tailored suits and coat dresses and see him o costume the smart woman when warm days call for clothing of lightor weight. They are of French serge, gabardine, homespuh, faille, rajah, Scotch eponge, whipcord or taffeta. The soft, non-crushable ma-terials have forced the stiff, heavy varieties temporarily into the back-round. Each of these costumes emphasizes the fact that the normal waist line has been recalled to favor by capricious fashion, and that the skin-tight sleeve has been consigned to the an-nals of the past. Most of the coats have rippling peplums and closely litted bodices. The sleeves are of the fitted bodices. or flare, bell-shaped bout the hands.

Where frocks are concerned, each ne seems to have its individual pair of sleeves, while others have flaring ops over full sub-sleeves of sheer naterials. There is a strong prefer-nce for the puffed sleeve, and when he frock is developed of a trasparent abric, such as chiffon, georgette repe or tulle, the sleeves are form-d of a series of puffs quite after the ashion of those worn in the romantic lays of Henry of Navarre.

The skirts of these same frocks are ide, showing broad, horizontal tucks ias folds, circular flounces, or corded shirrings. About the waist the tre gathered, pleated, smocked, shir About the waist they

Of Middlepoint, Van Wert County, Gets Praise of James Whitcomb Riley, Hoosier Poet

Henry Baker, of Middle Point, Van Wert county, a sixteen-year-old son of parents who have brought nine other children into this world, bids fair to become the bard of Ohio, if the pace which he has set in poetry at present stays with him in the fu-The young man has been at tending schools at Middle Point until a few years ago, when he was com-pelled to give up his school studies to The pasto of the Celina Presbyter-an Society depends very strongly up-take up work to help support the fa-mily. He is now working in a small city in Indiana and keeping two of money in the hope of being able to school and college within the next few years. Proof of the fact that Baker is a coming poet of no mean ability lies in the fact that he won the following meritorious comment from James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosler poet, when that worthy read Baker's poem, Bunny's Thanksgiving." The letter and poem follow: Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 6, 1916.

Henry Baker, Esq., Middle Point, O Dear Henry: I have just read your "Bunny's Thanksgiving" and it is simply fine. Wish I could have done half as well at your age. "Hitch your wagon to a star" and press onward, through sunshine and shadow, storm and calm.

Strive to do your best, God with joy will do the rest. JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY. The following is the selection complimented so highly by Mr. Riley:

BUNNY'S THANKSGIVING Aha! the snow is falling, in pure, soft flakes of white; It greets the coming day and bids farewell to fading night.

"Tis dawn; the flakes come flitting down; the suncasts forth no ray; His face is hid behind the clouds, and 'tis Thanksgving Day;

A day when people, young and old, from all the wide world o'er, Should thank their God for what He's done; then gladly thank him more. But, while the light increases, while shadows creep away, There's one, at least who does not know about Thanksgiving Day.

Near the melancholy forest, where all the leaves lie dead. Wild Bunny sets a-blinking in his cozy, snowy bed. His long slim ears are held erect, he keeps a-looking back For anything which might by chance, espy his fresh made track.

He's ready at any time to flee, the moment a foe advances; He's ever on a careful watch—wild Bunny takes no chances. Hark! A noise breakes the silence, a deep, long, drawn-out wall, A rabbit hound! Alas! Alas-found poor Bunny's trail. But look! from out the snow appears a shooting streak of gray; "Tis Bunny, making for his hole a half a mile away. His only chance, he knows it well, and spurts along the ground. Behind him comes the dreadful foe, gaining at every bound. ne quarter mile is quickly passed, the hole soon looms in sight,

Bunny, with faint hope in his heart, leaps on with all his might. The hound draws near; the space between the two is fast diminished; The dog's hot breath is plainly felt; the race is nearly finished. Poor Bunny. He scarce can keep his pace; he's almost out of breath.

But if he stops, behind him comes an almost cetain death. But look! With a sudden burst of speed, he dashes up a bank, And disappears within his hole a the hound just nips his flank. Once in his hole he does not fear; the danger now is gone; He throws himself upon his bed and sleeps with without a yawn. In his sleep, his dreams were thank ful, as on his bed he lay, And this, believe or doubt it, was

Bunny's Thanksgiving Day.

yle Show Week

SHEEP AND WOOL

Mary's lamb is coming back. Wilson tariff did not bring ruin. Sheep and wool bring profit price. Free Suitings - Waist Line Comes wool had terrors for partisan republithey are buying back at double price For 50 years farmers were told that high tariff was their friend. This bubble has burst. The delusion exists no longer. Wool commands higher price under no tariff than under high tariff. Tariff adds nothing to crop values. Tariff adds cost to Belgian, a dark chestnut sorrell, with silver mane and tall, weight about 2,200 pounds. A good one. Come

JOHN STILLBARGER.

Henry Lad Gains Distinction Marine Corps for Performance In Gunnery at Boston

In an official bulletin issued by Headquarters, United States Marine Corps, Washington, appears the name of Charles J. Feltz, of St. Henry, this county, as having qualified as a marksman in that most interesting branch of the Government service.

Charles, who is a son of Louis Feltz, R. D. No. 2., St. Henry, enlistd in the United States Marine Corps at its Cleveland recruiting station on August 30, 1915 and is now serving at the marine barracks, navy yard, Boston, Mass. awaiting transfer to expeditionary duty where he will have many interesting experiences and adventures, or to a cruising battleship which will visit strange lands and give the Mercer county youth an ex-cellent opportunity to see the world.

Considering the fact that Feltz is carcely more than a recruit, his performance in gunnery is looked upor by Marine Corps officials as little short of marvelous, and they expect break many marksmanship records before his enlistment expires Mrs. Fred Frahm, of Toledo, has been in this city the last few days looking after some business matters and visiting old friends.

the booze route. If the taxpayer was relieved from digging up the money to pay for the police who made the arrests, the jails which housed them, the cost of 14,684 court trials and the 40 cents a day that spent to feed and of them, it would be quite an miles to see the Styles Big Pete is

The Only Word Fit to Appear in Public Prints

As Young Inventor Returns to His Home After Battle in the Trenches With Geyser Family-Invention Now for Sale.

East Moriches, L. I., March 12 .-Those who know skunks, either as pets or marksmen, realize that nothing distinguishes them, aside from their aroma, more than their love of home life. And for this reason when a skunk father immigrates into an empty barn, well or ice house, taking with him his whole skunk family, the owner of the property becomes a most unhappy landlord. will listen to an argument. He knows his limitations and when it comes time for action, he simply does the first thing that occurs to him. W. H. Chapman, of this town. opened his ice house yesterday to find that a family of skunks had taken an apartment with him. He ran about a half mile along the road lead-ing from his farm and every time he yelled "Guess what I found in my barn?" the neighbors drew in a long breath and guessed correctly—with pained expressioin.

Mr. Chapman finally met his nep ew, Harold Chapman, who stood at distance of twenty-five paces, and eard his uncle's story of a wild orning at the old ice house. Harld is the young man who recently atsined East Moriches fame by inventg a motor bobsled and he information his uncle, without reteasing his ld on his nose, that he would rid ne family cooler of the geyser fam ly for fifteen cents American money

This morning at two minutes after en o'clock Harold, the dauntless, wearng a haircomb and a signet ring, pened the door of the ice house and hricked "scat." It was the only ord he uttered this morning that is fit to print in a family publicaton. His uncle got off light. Harold afterward explained to a friend over the long distance telephone that he never knew there was so much odor in America. For twenty minutes he fought with these animals who regard the rules of conflict as a mere scrap of paper. When he had finish Of 45,750 persons who were con-fined in county jails in Indiana last year, 14,684 got there by traveling thrown out of the ice house and he as alone with their parting tribute Friends with gas belinets turned se on him and late today he was lowly becoming tolerable.

going to show next week

All roads leav Celina Auto Co. the home of the fall

ST. HE

A. E. QUI

Auto Accessosies of Every

SPRING STYLE WEEK

Wednesday, March 22, to Saturday, March 25

Courtright's

Exhibiting the New Spring Styles

A Fashion Show of fascinating interest, to which all are cordially invited. It is with genuine pleasure that we welcome you to see the new styles this Spring. For many months past we have been selecting, buying and preparing for this event, and it is with a feeling of pardonable pride that we ask you to view the result. Beautiful new goods in every department, a bigger selection to choose from and at reasonable prices, combine to make this a display that will prove especially interesting and decidedly profitable to you. Remember, we delight in showing the New Goods.

Our New Spring Coats and Suits are charming. We are showing styles that embrace the originality of Parisian Models with the ingenuity and workmanship of the American tailor. Prices from $5.00 to $35.00

Beautiful Creations in Waists-Insert sleeves, in long lengths, predominate. Dainty Lingerie, fine Batistes and Lawns, net-over Chiffon, Crepe-de-chine and striped Silks are all here in bounteous array. Priced from ..... $1.00 to $5.00

Undermuslins that reveal a daintiness of design and excellence of quality that will win your heart approval the minute you see and inspect them. The prices

Handsome Silks-Rare beauty, a big line and big values. See them. They are Our Dress Goods Department is full of new goods. All coloas and qualities. Beautiful embroidery flouncings in Embroidered Organdies and Voiles. They are New arrivals in Latest Style Dresses-delightfully chic-in Serges, Taffetas and Silk Poplins. Come and iaspect them. From..... The Royal Worcester Corset-The Corset is the foundation of the fashionably gowned woman's attractive appearance, Some very attractive new models that are a revelation in Corset making, await your approval. Priced from ... $1.00 to $3.00 Lace Curtains and Curtain Scrims-In new Spring materials of Nets, Voiles and Marquisettes. Large line to select from, in White, Cream and Ecru. Still many more unmentioned items are here. Style, Beauty and Quality and Fair Prices are all here to attract you. Come and see them even if you don't want to

These Days Are Show Days